Pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Grant/Award, this Authorization:

The Aniak volunteer Fire Department, the "Dragon Slayers" (youth emergency response team), and Yukon Kuskokwim Health Corporation (YKHC) will lead two four-week vocational training sessions that expose youth to different medical fields and career options. Twenty to twenty five students will learn rescue techniques from mock burning buildings, practice CPR, and become ETT certified.

Students will also gain skills in personal development, life skills, social development, urban familiarization, and career development. Students will prepare to obtain a WIN for Work keys Career Readiness certificate.

The project will serve 17-24 year old participants from Kuspuk, Chugach, Lake and Peninsula and Bering Strait School Districts as well as the communities that are served by the Northwestern Alaska Career and Technical Education Center (NACTEC).
